

Facilitation Essentials

A Facilitate Aotearoa learning opportunity

This hands-on, fast-paced and fun day will provide trainees with the opportunity to develop skills to run a productive and inclusive meeting or workshop.

1 day face-to-face learning

LEARN HOW TO:

- build trust in a group
- develop a clear purpose and plan for a meeting or workshop
- achieve full participation when facilitating and
- get the group to a clear result.

Learn the basics for indigenous-informed facilitation, to enable you to work more effectively and sensitively in Aotearoa New Zealand's cultural contexts

Plus online sessions

You'll benefit from two 1.5 hour online sessions held a month later where you'll:

- reflect on putting your skills into practice for further learning and consolidation; and
- gain tips and tricks for facilitating meetings and workshops effectively online

What our participants say

"Highly valuable, many of these skills can be honed and applied to future situations."

"It's been great! Opened my eyes to how to plan and approach a meeting in a clearer format."

"Active listening – how important it is and to really separate myself from the content as a facilitator."
